

USED TO – Past Habits and Past States

Extended Practice Worksheet (with Answer Key)

This worksheet helps you practise used to to talk about things that were true in the past but are not true now. It also practises the difference between used to, past simple, and would.

Quick Reminder

- used to + base verb → past habits and past states that are no longer true
- didn't use to + base verb → negative form
- Did + subject + use to + base verb? → question form
- would → for repeated actions in the past (not for states)

Exercise 1 – Choose the correct form

Complete the sentences using used to or didn't use to.

1. I _____ (like) vegetables, but now I eat them every day.
2. She _____ (live) near here, but she moved to another city.
3. We _____ (go) there every summer when we were children.
4. He _____ (drink) coffee, but now he can't live without it.
