

Words and Phrases Followed by Gerund

1. I proposed ..... a walk in the forest.

- a) have
- b) to have
- c) having

2. I succeeded in ..... my project on time.

- a) finish
- b) to finish
- c) finishing

3. Jane has been avoiding ..... Michael ever since they had an argument.

- a) see
- b) seeing
- c) to see

4. The kids admitted ..... the statue from the park.

- a) to steal
- b) stealing
- c) to stealing

5. Even though the noise was unbearable, he went on .....

- a) Shouting
- b) to shouting
- c) to shout

6. Would you mind ..... me with my homework?

- a) to help
- b) helping
- c) to helping

7. I enjoy ..... a hearty breakfast.

- a) eating
- b) to eat
- c) to eating

8. It's no use ..... your pencil. Here, take mine.

- a) looking for
- b) to looking for
- c) look for

9. I'm looking forward ..... college.

- a) to graduate
- b) to graduating
- c) graduating

10. I don't like people who enter the room without .....

- a) knock
- b) knocking
- c) to knocking

Key:

1. I proposed having a walk in the forest.
2. I succeeded in finishing my project on time.
3. Jane has been avoiding seeing Michael ever since they had an argument.
4. The kids admitted stealing the statue from the park.
5. Even though the noise was unbearable, he went on shouting.
6. Would you mind helping me with my homework?
7. I enjoy eating a hearty breakfast.
8. It's no use looking for your pencil. Here, take mine.
9. I'm looking forward to graduating from college.
10. I don't like people who enter the room without knocking.