

Verbs Followed by To + Infinitive – Practice Exercises

Exercise 1: Choose the correct form (to + infinitive or –ing)

1. She decided ___ abroad next year. (move)
2. He hopes ___ the exam on the first attempt. (pass)
3. We can't afford ___ any mistakes. (make)
4. They refused ___ a comment. (give)
5. I managed ___ the problem in the end. (solve)
6. She promised ___ me as soon as she arrived. (call)
7. He learned ___ under pressure. (work)
8. We expect ___ the results tomorrow. (receive)
9. She offered ___ us with the project. (help)
10. They agreed ___ earlier than planned. (leave)

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences using verb + object + to + infinitive

1. The teacher encouraged us ___ more carefully. (listen)
2. My parents want me ___ harder this year. (study)
3. She reminded him ___ the door. (lock)
4. They advised us ___ early. (arrive)
5. The manager asked everyone ___ calm. (stay)
6. He persuaded her ___ the job offer. (accept)
7. The guide warned us ___ the animals. (not feed)
8. She told me ___ her later. (call)
9. They allowed him ___ remotely. (work)
10. I expect you ___ on time. (be)

Exercise 3: Rewrite using the passive infinitive

1. People expect the report to arrive today.
2. They want someone to repair the roof.

3. The teacher expects students to follow the rules.
4. People believe the documents are authentic.
5. They expect the company to announce changes.
6. The manager wants staff to respect deadlines.
7. People expect the problem to be solved quickly.
8. They want someone to clean the office.
9. Experts expect the situation to improve.
10. They want people to understand the risks.

Exercise 4: Rewrite using the perfect infinitive

1. It seems that he forgot the meeting.
2. She appears that she misunderstood the instructions.
3. They claim they finished the project early.
4. He seems that he made a mistake.
5. She appears that she left without telling anyone.
6. They claim they met the author.
7. He seems that he lost his keys.
8. She appears that she studied abroad.
9. They claim they warned us.
10. He seems that he underestimated the task.

Answer Key – Verbs Followed by To + Infinitive

Exercise 1

1. to move 2. to pass 3. to make 4. to give 5. to solve 6. to call 7. to work 8. to receive 9. to help 10. to leave

Exercise 2

1. to listen 2. to study 3. to lock 4. to arrive 5. to stay 6. to accept 7. not to feed 8. to call 9. to work 10. to be

Exercise 3

1. The report is expected to arrive today. 2. The roof is wanted to be repaired. 3. Students are expected to follow the rules. 4. The documents are believed to be authentic. 5. The company is expected to announce changes. 6. Staff are wanted to respect deadlines. 7. The problem is expected to be solved quickly. 8. The office is wanted to be cleaned. 9. The situation is expected to improve. 10. People are wanted to understand the risks.

Exercise 4

1. He seems to have forgotten the meeting. 2. She appears to have misunderstood the instructions. 3. They claim to have finished the project early. 4. He seems to have made a mistake. 5. She appears to have left without telling anyone. 6. They claim to have met the author. 7. He seems to have lost his keys. 8. She appears to have studied abroad. 9. They claim to have warned us. 10. He seems to have underestimated the task.